Krabi, a coastal province, abounds with countless natural attractions that never fail to impress tourists. Such attractions include white sandy beaches, crystal clear water, fascinating coral reefs, caves and waterfalls, as well as, numerous islands.

From archaeological discoveries, it is believed that Krabi was one of the oldest communities in Thailand dating back to the prehistoric period. It is believed that this town may have taken its name after the meaning of Krabi, which means sword. This may have stemmed from a legend.
that an ancient sword was unearthed prior to the city’s founding.

Bordering the Andaman Sea, Krabi is located 814 kilometres south of Bangkok and covers an area of 4,708 square kilometres. Its mountainous physical geography is broken by highlands and plains, as well as, covers more than 130 large and small islands, and abounds with mangrove forests. The Krabi River flows 5 kilometres through the town and flows into the Andaman Sea at Tambon Pak Nam. There are also canals or Khlongs such as Khlong Pakasai, Khlong Krabi Yai, and Khlong Krabi Noi, which all originate from Krabi’s highest mountain Mount Phanom Bencha.

ATTRACTIONS
Amphoe Mueang Krabi

Khao Khanap Nam (เขาขนาบน้ำ)
These two hills, roughly 100 metres high, flank the Krabi River running between them to form a distinctive vista and the town’s most prominent landmark. Apart from admiring these hills from the boat and visiting the local mangrove forests, Khao Khanap Nam has a beautiful cave with amazing stalactites and stalagmites worth exploring. From the boat, one climbs the stairs leading up to the cave. A large number of human skeletons have been found here but are currently gone. It is theorized that they were those who came and established a home at Khanap Nam, but were cut off by an inundation of water and quickly perished.
To get there: It is accessible within 15 minutes by long-tail boat from Chao Fah Pier. The travel time around 1 hour.

Hat Noppharat Thara–Mu Ko Phi Phi National Park (อุทยานแห่งชาติหมู่เกาะพีพี เกาะพีพี) is located in Mu 5 Tambon Ao Nang, covering an area of 242,437 rai in which 200,849 rai is water. There are 3 distinctive kinds of forest here.

Moist evergreen forests: are found on the high steep mountains of Khao Hang Nak and Khao Ao Nang.

Mangrove forest: are found in Khlong Hang, which is within the area of the National Park’s headquarters, as well as, around Khlong Yan Saba and Susan Hoi or the 40-million-year fossil shell beach (situated to the northeast).

Peat swamp forests: comprise an outstanding plant society of pure Samet or cajuput forest. Numerous species of fauna include frigatebird, brahminy kite, white-bellied sea-eagle, edible-nest swiftlet, common wild pig, monkey, and langur.

The National Park provides accommodation, Admission fee for Adult 400 Baht. for Children 200 Baht. For more information, National park office Tel. 0 7563 7200, for accommodation Tel. 0 7565 6150 The best time to visit is between November–April.

Place of Interest in the National Park

Hat Noppharat Thara (หาดนพรัตนธารา) 3-kilometre long sandy beach lined. The beach paved with tiny seashells, was formerly called “Hat Khlong Haeng”, which means dried canal beach, because when the tide ebbs the stream flowing from the northern mountains almost disappears. The area, hence, turns into a long beach and stretches all the way to the island of Ko Khao Pak Khlong. It is also possible at low tide to walk from the beach to various small islands within the bay. This beach is popular among those who prefer serene and tranquil surroundings.

Susan Hoi (literally means Shell Cemetery) (สุสานหอย) is located 17 kilometres from the provincial capital, within Ban Laem Pho, Susan Hoi is accessible via the same route as Hat Noppharat Thara. A road sign to this shell cemetery is visible when one reaches Ban Sai Thai. Once a large freshwater swamp, the habitat of diverse mollusks of about 2 centimetres in size, Susan Hoi features a slab formed from a huge number of embedded various types of mollusks which can be dated to approximately 40 million years ago. With changes on the surface of the earth, seawater flooded the freshwater swamp and the limestone elements in the seawater enveloped the submerged mollusks resulting in a homogenous layer of fossilized mollusk shells forty centimetres thick known as Shelley Limestone. With geographical upheavals, the limestone layer is now distributed in great broken sheets of impressive magnitude on the seashore.

Ao Nang (อ่าวนาง) is located approximately 6 kilometres from Hat Noppharat Thara, this bay has a broad sandy beach that stretches to the foot of a prominent limestone range. Accommodation, restaurants, and tour operators are available along the beachfront. From Ao Nang, tourists may hire boats to nearby attractions such as; Hat Rai Le, as well as, enjoy rock climbing at Hat Tham Phra Nang, Ko Poda, Ko Mo and Ko Thap are popular destinations among tourists for their beautiful beaches and colourful coral reefs. They are ideal islands for diving and snorkelling.

Hat Railay (หาดไรเลย์) is characterized by beautiful landscapes with magnificent limestone cliffs as a heaven for rock climbers. Hat Railay consist of 2 side;

- Railay West: is the longest, featuring white sand and shallow water. Though Railay West is ideal for sunbathing, do be warned that the southern-end is pretty rocky. Being also the most beautiful at sunset, popular of resorts, restaurants and beach bars serving visitors. Further a good spot for rock climbing

- Railay East: (Hat Nam Maow) which is actually really just part of a bigger mangrove swamp. Though it’s not great for swimming, it’s the best place to catch a beautiful sunrise.

Thale Waek or Separated Sea
Railay West and East is Phranang Beach, named after the cave containing a sacred Buddha image that can be found on this beach. Phranang is the best beach for swimming, with clean, white powdery sand and crystal clear, shallow water.

Mu Ko Poda (หมู่เกาะปอดะ) is located 8 kilometres offshore of Ao Nang. Mu Ko Poda is fringed by clear waters, and offers white sandy beaches, as well as, pristine coral reefs. This is why it is a year-round attraction and an excellent place for fishing because it is not affected so much by the monsoon. Mu Ko Poda can be reached within 25 minutes by boat from Ao Nang. Many noteworthy islands like Ko Thap, Ko Mo, Ko Hua Khwan, and Ko Kai are situated nearby. A beautiful sandy beach, connecting these islands, is visible at low tide.

Thale Waek or Separated Sea (ทะเลแหวก) During the lowest tide of the day, the sea is gradually separated by the white sand and limestone beach that will appear to amazingly connect two islands. The best time to visit is 5 days before and after the full moon from December to the beginning of May.
Mu Ko Phi Phi (หมู่เกาะพีพี) is located 42 kilometres from the provincial town of Krabi, Mu Ko Phi Phi, an archipelago, was formerly called Pulao Piah Pi, where in Pulao is the Malay word for island and Piah Pi refers to the cassia and mangrove wood found there. The name previously sounded something like Pi Pi and later the P was pronounced with a stronger aspiration and the name became Phi Phi as we know today. Exceptionally clear waters teem with a rich variety of underwater anemones, coral reefs, and colourful marine life, Phi Phi Islands is a popular destination for snorkelling. Mu Ko Phi Phi, an archipelago of six islands located at an equal distance from Krabi and Phuket, consists of Ko Phi Phi Le, Ko Phi Phi Don, Ko Yung, Ko Mai Phai, Ko Bida Nok, and Ko Bida Nai. These islands are renowned for their marvellous beaches and crystalline water.

Ko Phi Phi Don

Place of Interest in Mu Ko Phi Phi: Ko Phi Phi Don (เกาะพีพีดอน) covering an area of 28 square kilometres. Outstanding attractions are the twin bays with curving white sandy beaches of Ao Ton Sai and Ao Lo Da Lam. Ko Phi Phi Pier. Visitors can walk from this bay uphill to the scenic spot where the visibility of the twin bays is generally excellent. Beside Ao Ton Sai, there are also other attractive beaches and bays around the island. A number of accommodation is available at Hat Laem Hin, Hat Yao, and Ao Lo Bakao. At the northern end of the island is Laem Tong, renowned for its underwater natural beauty with lodging available. A huddle of fisherman’s huts (15–20 families) is located here. Most of them have previously migrated from Ko Li Pe of Tarutao National Park, Satun province.
Ko Phi Phi Le (เกาะพีพีเล) covering an area of only 6.6 square kilometres, this islet is surrounded by limestone mountains and sheer cliffs plunging hundreds of metres to the sea. The sea is 20 metres deep and the deepest point in the south of the island is around 34 metres. Ko Phi Phi Le offers superb scenic bays such as Ao Pi Le, Ao Maya, and Ao Lo Sa Ma. In the northeast of the island is a large cave called Tham Viking. The cave was renamed Tham Phaya Nak or Naga Serpent Cave by King Rama IX because of a stone resembling the mythical creature, which His Majesty saw when he paid a visit here in 1972.

Ko Yung (เกาะยูง) is located in north of Ko Phi Phi Don. The island has a stone beach in the east and small sandy beaches at the foot of the hills. It is teeming with various kinds of colourful coral reefs.

Ko Mai Phai (เกาะไม้ไผ่) is located in the north of Ko Phi Phi Don and not far from Ko Yung. Marvellous beaches are in the north and east of the island. The bank of coral reefs with staghorn corals, in particular, stretches from north to south of the island.

To get there: Mu Ko Phi-Phi can accessible from both Krabi and Phuket. For one-day trip on speedboat is available at Ao Nang Boat Service Co-operation Co., Ltd or contact tour operation.

Ngon Nak point (จุดชมวิวเขาหงอน_na)
is located in Ranger Station Pho Pho 4 (Thap Khaek), is part of Hat Noppharat Thara–Mu Ko Phi Phi National Park. Thap Khaek boasts numerous species of flora and fauna and offers a lookout point or Ngon Nak point -bird's eye view of Krabi's sea- with the natural forest trail total length of about 3.7 kilometres. A guide is necessary.

To get there, take Highway No. 4200 onto the Khlong Chilat Intersection. Take a left turn onto Highway No. 4034 towards Ban Nong Thale. Take another left turn towards Ban Khlong Muang and then a right turn to the Ranger Station. This route is 38 kilometres.

Tham Sadet (ถ้ำเสด็จ) is located at Ban Nong Kok, Tambon Sai Thai, 7 kilometres from the provincial town of Krabi. The villagers named it to mark the visit–sadet–of King Rama VI (before he ascended to the throne) in 1909. The cave features marvellous stalactite and stalagmite formations.

Wat Tham Suea (วัดถ้ำเสือ) is located at Ban Tham Suea, Tambon Krabi Noi, Tham Suea means tiger cave because the cave in front of Ao Luk Tharu Range or Khao Kaeo features natural rock impressions of tiger paws and real tigers once roamed this area. The surrounding area is covered with lush forest and enormous trees hundreds of years old, particularly in the Khiri Wong Valley. Mountains are on all sides and there are smaller caves in great numbers such as Tham Khonthan, Tham Lot, Tham Chang Kao, Tham Luk Tharu, and Tham Phra. Aside from being the site of a meditation centre, it is also a place of archaeological interest, dating from the prehistoric into proto-historic times. Stone tools, potsherds, and unbaked clay votive tablets have been found. In addition to this, there are trekking routes, and a trail of 1,272 steps leading to the lookout point for a bird’s eye view of the place.

To get there: 7 kilometres from the provincial town of Krabi via Highway No. 4 (Phetchakasem Road) and turning left onto Highway No. 4037 (Ratsadon Phatthana Road).

Pa Phru Tha Pom Khlong Song Nam ป่าพรุท่าน้อย คลองสองน้ำ is located at Ban Nong Chik, Mu 2, Tambon Khao Khram. Pa Phru or peat swamp forest of the canal of Tha Pom features a number of water sources, which originate from the Chong Phra Kaeo pool. Tha Pom is called Khlong Song Nam by the locals, which in Thai literally means “two water canal”, because of its special feature location where crystal clear freshwater, which the pool’s floor and the roots of Lumphi palm (Eleiodoxa conferta) are virtually visible, meets seawater from the mangrove forest. Tha Pom features a natural trail made of lath. Wooden chairs are located at certain points for nature lovers to conveniently admire the view of the place. Admission fee for adults 90 Baht and Children 50 Baht. For more information, contact the Khao Khram Sub-district Administration Organization, Tel. 0 7569 4165, 0 7560 3408.

To get there: Take Highway No. 4 (Phetchakasem Road: Krabi-Ao Luek route) onto Km. 126 and take a left turn for another 5 kilometres.
